

2009-2010 Greek Conduct Committee Application

Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution

Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution is currently recruiting members of the Florida Greek Community to serve as members of the Greek Conduct committee for the 2009-2010 year.

GREEK CONDUCT COMMITTEE

The Greek Conduct Committee has jurisdiction to hear organizational cases in which a particular social sorority or fraternity is charged with violations of the Student Code of Conduct. The Greek Conduct Committee represents each of the four governing Greek councils (Interfraternity Council, Multicultural Greek Council, National Pan-Hellenic Council, and Panhellenic Council) and is comprised of elected Chairs (the Executive Vice Presidents of the four governing councils) and selected members from each of the four governing councils.

The Committee is responsible for hearing the case involving an alleged violation as well as submitting a written report to the Dean of Students containing findings of responsibility and recommended sanctions, if appropriate. If the accused sorority or fraternity is found responsible for the violation(s), the hearing body shall recommend one or more sanctions as provided in 6C1-4.016, University of Florida Regulations. The Dean of Students or designee reserves the right to adopt, reject or modify the Committee's findings and recommendations or to remand the case back to a Committee.

RESPONSIBILITY OF COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Once selected, Committee Members are required to:

1. attend all training sessions
2. be available for scheduled hearings for which s/he is assigned

In addition, the Committee members will also have the opportunity to serve as a member of the Florida Greek Standards Review committee. The Florida Greek Standards Review committee recommends corrective measures for chapters that do not meet expectations in one or more sections of the Florida Greek Standards. The Review committee is comprised of: the Council advisor for that respective chapter, a UF staff member that works in the area for which the chapter did not meet expectations (e.g. Academic Advising, Center for Leadership and Service), the Executive Vice President of the council of which the organization is recognized by, and two members of the Greek Conduct Committee – one from the council the organization is recognized by and one member from another council.

SELECTION CRITERIA

To be eligible for the Greek Conduct Committee, a student must meet the following minimum requirements:

1. must be an active member of a registered social sorority or fraternity that is recognized by one of the four governing councils (IFC, MGC, NPHC, or PC)
2. must have completed one full semester (excluding summer sessions) of academic classes at UF
3. must be in good standing with the University (must not currently be on conduct probation or suspension)
4. must be in good standing with his/her sorority or fraternity
5. must be full-time, matriculating undergraduate students (full-time means registered for at least 12 credit hours during the fall and spring semesters)
6. must have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 and have earned a 2.0 GPA for the previous semester (excluding summer terms)
